

Description

Metal Mate 12 x 3mm x 3m Aluminium Flat Bar is a precision-engineered aluminium flat bar designed for practical fabrication and assembly applications. Its flat strip design offers consistent dimensions and ease of integration. The silver finish delivers both an attractive appearance and enhanced durability. This product provides trade professionals with reliable material properties for constructing robust frameworks and technical components in diverse assembly projects.

Features

- Precision-engineered aluminium flat bar 12 x 3mm x 3m
- Flat strip profile ensures uniform load distribution
- Silver finish provides clean aesthetic for fabrication
- Lightweight aluminium simplifies handling and installation
- Versatile material meets a wide range of fabrication needs
- Stable structure supports precision machining and joining
- Smooth surface permits neat mechanical coatings and finishes
- Reliable performance for demanding projects and custom fabrications
